Come learn about creating a book about your child to share with teachers, caregivers, and others who work with your child that will help them get to know your child, what works for them, what doesn't, and their favorite things. This is especially helpful when your child is in a transition period of time.

After understanding the process we will spend time creating books—please bring items to create your book; binder, photos, scrapbooking materials, or laptop computer.

The workshop will be facilitated by Robert and Sandy Clayton, and Cathy Murahashi (Parent to Parent Coordinator for ARC of King County)

Please RSVP to Tracey Gerhardt at traceygerhardt@yahoo.com, 206-459-7750. For directions visit www.mountain-ridge.org.
